

KIMBERLY ANNABLE

Associate

Education

Master of Architecture, University of Oregon, 2004
Bachelor of Arts, Oberlin College, 1984

Professional Experience

Joseph Ferut & Associates, Architects
ADR Delta, Architects & Engineers
The Craftswomen (Design/Build)

Affiliations

National Trust for Historic Preservation

Community Service and Organizations

USA Archery
Ohio Ecological Food & Farm Association
Pines of Carolina Girl Scout Council Leader 2005-2007
Wake County Area (Girl Scout) Cookie Manager 2005-2007
Habitat for Humanity
Main Street Milwaukie
Historic Preservation League of Oregon
Women Entrepreneurs of Oregon

Scholastic Honors and Awards

Graduate Teaching Fellowship: Building Construction
Gertrude Moulton Scholarship
Metcalf Award

Exhibits and Papers

Thesis Project: "The Meaning of Place; Building on the Past for a Waterfront of the Future: The Wooden Boat Museum", Milwaukie, Oregon, 2004
"Women's and Children's Health Center", AIA Academy of Architecture for Health Conference, Denver, 2003
"The Textile Center", Exhibit, AIA Portland, 2003

JOSEPH FERUT AND ASSOCIATES, ARCHITECTS